CHILDREN'S ACADEMY

A community initiative by the Bellville Catholic Church

the happy place

The Happy Place Children's Academy, launched in January 2013, is a community initiative by the Bellville Catholic Church. The Academy encompasses the upliftment and development of children in grades 4-12.

The Academy is committed to support young learners in the development of general life skills and operates on the basis of volunteers in the community offering their services.

The objectives

- Promote and develop positive social and life skills.
- Create a constructive and stimulating learning environment.
- Enhancing imperative personal characteristics and values.

What we offer

- School and Home Work Assistance
- Life Skills Training
- Art and Craft Classes
- Music Lessons
- Fun and special activities

General
